Hi Victor,

Can you give me a little more info? Do we have someone posted at the location?

Hello Commander and Lt,

I just received this report below that LAPD is not allowing folks to return to the Lomita / McCoy encampment that received a CSLA clean-up yesterday. Have you heard anything about this? Any clarification I can provide to the teams?

Devin and I were present during Lomita and McCoy (Salvation Army) scheduled clean-up this morning. Upon our arrival, dwellers were preparing for clean-up. Devin and I assisted dwellers with preparing for scheduled clean up March 20, 2019 at 8:30 am.

LA Sanitation conducted cleanup on McCoy, from Lomita, south to 253rd street. They also covered area east and west of McCoy.

Dwellers were offered shelter placement and transportation. Dwellers declined services at this time. Majority of dwellers expressed the reason for refusal of shelter today, dwellers stressed they have a lot of personal items and do not have a storage. HETMs to continue to research, free storage options, in the Harbor City area. HET members advised dwellers of available Winter Shelter Programs and passed out flyers with the Cold Weather Shelter Information.

LA Sanitation Clean-Up Assessment has been completed
